

Once a month.
Internationally
renowned scholars.
Interdisciplinary approaches.

The research group Philosophy of Engineering, Technology Assessment, and Science (PhilETAS) organizes a

Normative Energy Ethics Lecture Series

Dates 2023	Speaker	Topic
19.01.	Eric Brandstedt	The contested meaning of climate leadership: an ameliorative analysis
15.02.	Christopher Groves	Bringing care ethics and energy ethics together: vulnerability, attachment, and narrative
22.03.	Eike Düvel	Compensating the losers of energy systems transformations? Stranded assets and legitimate expectations
19.04.	Mette High	Do you really not know that? Energy ethics and interdisciplinary collaborations
17.05.	Rosie Day	Energy poverty and energy vulnerability through a capabilities lens: conceptualisation and implementation
26.06.	Konrad Ott	Domains of climate ethics
05.07.	Viola Schiaffonati	Power systems, ethical issues, and social implications: some reflections emerging from a course experimentation at Politecnico di Milano
September	Carl Mitcham	Energy, ethics, and liberalism
October	Céline Kermisch	Nuclear waste, retrievability, and intergenerational justice register here

www.itas.kit.edu/philetas_nee contact: energy-ethics@itas.kit.edu